Christ is revealed to all peoples
Wise men from the east guided by a star came to worship Christ. In them we see the homage of all the nations to Christ who is forever the light of the world. We too can become an Epiphany – a revealing – of God
if we lead full Christian lives.

Christmas: Many thanks for all your gifts, cards and Christmas offerings. You have been extremely generous and I am very grateful to you all.

Celebration of Christmas: Many thanks to all who prepared the church both in cleaning and decorating. The flowers were uplifting and produced a wonderful festive atmosphere and the church was as clean as a whistle. Thank you to The Folk Group and our organist Frank Goodhind for providing our music and usual they both maintained their excellent standard. To the Altar Servers, Readers, Eucharistic Ministers and Collectors I offer much appreciation for your participation. To our Sacristan as always Semper Fidelis.

A Happy and Holy 2010

Krystyna Laszcz: It is with deep sadness I have to advise you that Krystyna died peacefully earlier this week. Details of the funeral arrangements will be published when they become available. May she rest in peace.

Catholic Life magazine with effect from January 2010 the price will be £3.50 an increase of 50p to cover the extra costs of production and distribution. The magazine remains value for money and I commend it to you.

Deanery Notices No 29 January 2010 is available in the church. Please take a copy.

From January 2010 an exact copy of the weekly newsletter will be available from our website. If any article needs editing please advise the parish office at the time of submission. Thank you
